

Compliance that Counts
– Things that accompany God-Pleasing Obedience –

Primary Text: Deuteronomy 6

1. In an age in which obedience to God and His Word is often downplayed, what stands out in what Moses said at the beginning and end of Deuteronomy 6 (see especially 6:3 & 25)?
2. What command is recorded in 6:3 that is repeated in 6:4?
3. When people do not listen to God, how do they tend to act (1:43; cf., 17:13)?
4. What were the people commanded in 6:5, and what was Jesus' assessment of this command (Matthew 22:37-38)?
5. With whom does God keep covenant (7:9)?
6. What must occur for one to love and obey God with all her heart and soul (30:6; cf., 10:16)?
7. With God's Word on their hearts, what else were the people commanded to do (6:6-9)?
8. For what situation were they to be ready (6:20)?

[Cont'd]

9. What were they to share besides God's commands (6:21-23)?

 10. When the Israelites settled in the Promised Land and began enjoying the blessings God would provide there, what would they need to be careful to not let happen (6:10-12)?

 11. When and what did the Israelites need to be sure to "remember."
 - 5:15

 - 8:1-3

 - 8:17-18

 - 24:17-18, 21-22

 12. Because the Lord is gracious but also demanding, merciful but also jealous, what else should accompany service to Him (6:2, 13, 24; 5:29)?

 13. How does one come to properly reverence the Lord (see 4:10; 14:23; 17:19; 31:12;- 13)

 14. When God's people carefully obey all the Lord has commanded, what will it be for them (6:25)?
-