

Follow Me

A group of people, likely a crowd or a community, are seated on the ground in a field. They are wearing traditional, heavy, light-colored robes and head coverings. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting dusk or dawn. The text "Lord, Teach Us To Pray" and "Luke 11" is overlaid in white on the center of the image.

“Lord, Teach Us To Pray”
Luke 11

“When You Pray...”

“Father”

“Hallowed Be Your Name”

“Your Kingdom Come”

“Give Us Each Day Our Daily Bread”

“And Forgive Us Our Sins”

“And Lead Us Not Into Temptation”

“Ask And It Will Be Given”

Summary

- We address God as our Father
- We first pray for His Name and Kingdom
- We pray for our material needs
- We pray for our spiritual needs
 - Forgiveness and safety from temptation
- We confidently ask and seek according to His will. (Luke 11:1 – 10)

Our Prayers Reveal Our Hearts

This Prayer Displays The Priority of Spiritual Things

This Prayer Displays the Priority of God's Purposes

How Do We Pray?

Follow Me

