Luke 14:12 - 14

He said also to the man who had invited him, "When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and you be repaid.<sup>13</sup> But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, <sup>14</sup> and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

A group of people, likely a community or a group of investors, are sitting in a circle in a field. They are wearing traditional Middle Eastern clothing, including head coverings and long robes. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting dusk or dawn. The text "Who Do You Invest In?" is overlaid on the image in a bold, white font.
